From Maine Turnpike (Portland area)

Take Exit 48 (Old Exit 8) off Maine Turnpike (I-95). Turn right immediately after toll booth, travel through two sets of lights, then take a left at third light onto Route 302 West. Travel about 40 miles to Bridgton. Travel through downtown Bridgton on Route 302, note monument at top of hill and continue for 2 more miles from the monument on Route 302. At 2 miles, turn left onto Hio Ridge Road. Travel 1.8 miles on Hio Ridge to Winona Road. Continue past the Farmhouse and down to the lakeside.

From North of Portland

Take New Exit 63 (Old Exit 11) in Gray. Go left after toll booth. Follow Route 115 to North Windham (approximately 7 miles). At light, take right onto US Route 302 and go west for approximately 20 miles. Travel through downtown Bridgton on Route 302, note monument at top of hill and continue for 2 more miles from the monument on Route 302. At 2 miles, turn left onto Hio Ridge Road. Travel 1.8 miles on Hio Ridge to Winona Road. Continue past the Farmhouse and down to the lakeside.

From Vermont and New Hampshire

Take Route 302 from Vermont or Route 16 in New Hampshire to Route 302 East into Maine. Travel east on Route 302 toward Bridgton. You'll pass the entrance to Shawnee Peak Ski Area (on right), cross the Moose Pond causeway, then pass Pleasant Mountain Inn on the right. Clock about 1 mile from the Inn and prepare for a very sharp right hand turn onto Hio Ridge Road. Proceed 1.8 miles on Hio Ridge to Winona Road. Continue past the Farmhouse and down to the lakeside.

MCS Mission Statement

Established in 1986, the Maine Canoe Symposium is a volunteer-run, nonprofit weekend event held annually at Camp Winona on Moose Pond in Bridgton, Maine.

The Symposium encourages participants of all ages to develop an understanding and appreciation of the diversity of North American canoeing heritage and to develop canoeing and related skills through educational workshops, presentations, and hands-on instruction.
